Newport Has Lively Week; Prepares for Cup Finals

Unusual Round of Dinners and Luncheons Fore-shadows Elaborate Entertaining During the Tennis Matches; Artists' Ball a Huge Success

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 17.—After a relapse since the time of the invitation tournament, Newport recovered itself during the last week, and social activities were resumed with renewed interest and zest. An unusual number of dinners and luncheons were held during the week, an indication of what is to follow during the Davis Cup finals, when it is expected that many more visitors will flock to Newport. The children had an unusually good time, their contests of various natures on the beach keeping them busy, and the older persons amused and interested. The boys' tournament at the Casino also had quite a following.

In the last few days there were the golf tournaments at the Country Club for the cups offered by Mrs. Astor and the Count di Turin Cup. To cap the climax of the athletic affairs of the week came the contest between the summer residents and the city officials on Saturday on the baseball diamond for threefold charities, the event being an overwhelming success in all departments.

Artists' Ball Social Triumph, Fulfills All Expectations

The Artists' Ball was held Thursday, and fulfilled the expectations of all who had been anxiously awaiting the affair. It was a social triumph. The grounds were beautifully and artistically decorated, and the pageants were excellently executed. Careful preparation was evident in everything that was done. The costumes were varying, but all were gorgeous.

The recent election of officers for the Spouting Rock Beach Association, when Edward J. Berwind was named president, showed that the old order of things and conservatism will reign at the beach for at least another year. Robert Walton Goeltz and Henry O. Havemeyer were desirous of a change of management, and society was considerably interested.

The zenith of the social season at Newport, for which every one is now waiting with eagerness, is the Davis Cup finals, when Newport will once again resemble the time when the national championships were held here. It is the intention of those who have the interest of Newport at heart to make this the greatest event in the history of its recent years, and already decisive steps have been taken in that direction.

Mrs. Harger Wallach is a live wire in the arrangements, and so far practically all of the boxes at the Casino have been engaged, and everybody of social importance will be present. In fact, during the last of the month Newport should be the mecca for all of the summer residents and tennis enthusiasts within striking distance.

During this season that entertaining should be at its highest point, with dinners, luncheons, and dances constantly the order for the pleasure of the tennis players and the social who will be here. Every one is planning entertainments of some nature, and Newport should present a scene of unbroken social endeavor. Many who have gone away will return especially for this event, and others who have not visited Newport this summer will make it a point to be here that weekend.

Continuous Entertainment of Players Is Planned

A continuous round of entertainment probably will be arranged for the benefit of the tennis players, similar to the affairs which were held when the invitation tournament was held. Only this time plans probably will be made on a much larger scale owing to the importance attached to the tournament and the fact that more people will be here at that time.
